5. (1) Within fourteen (14) days after the making of a hire-purchase agreement, the owner shall serve or cause to be served on the hirer and the guarantors a copy of the agreement each.

[Ins. Act A20]

(1A) Failure to comply with subsection (1) would render the hire-purchase agreement unenforceable by the owner.

(2) At any time before the final payment has been made under a hire-purchase agreement the owner shall, within fourteen (14) days after he has received a request in writing from the hirer, supply to the hirer a copy of any memorandum or note of the agreement-

(a) on payment by the hirer of the prescribed fee; or

(b) where no fee prescribed, one free copy, and thereafter a fee as may be prescribed shall be charged for the supply of a second or subsequent copy thereof.

(3) Where any part of the total amount payable consists of an amount paid or to be paid under a policy of insurance in respect of the goods, the owner shall serve or cause to be served on the hirer fourth with a copy of the insurance payment receipt and, within seven (7) days of receipt of the policy, a copy of the policy or statement in writing setting out the terms, conditions and exclusions of the policy that affect the rights of the hirer.

6. Deleted.

PART III PROTECTION OF HIRERS AND GUARANTORS Warranties and Conditions

Conditions and warranties to be implied in every hire-purchase agreement.

7. (1) In every hire-purchase agreement there shall be-

(a) an implied warranty that the hirer shall have and enjoy quiet possession of the goods;

(b) an implied condition on the part of the owner that he shall have a right to sell the goods at the time when the property to pass;

(c) an implied warranty that the goods shall be free from any charge or encumbrance in favour of any third party at the time when the property is to pass.

- (2) In every hire-purchase agreement there shall be an implied condition that the goods shall be of merchantable quality, but such a condition shall not be implied-
  - (a) where the hirer has examined the goods or a sample thereof, as regards defects which the examination ought to have revealed; or
  - (b) if the goods are second-hand goods and the agreement contains a statement to the effect that-
    - (i) the goods are second-hand; and
    - (ii) all conditions and warranties as to quality are expressly negated, and the owner proves that the hirer has acknowledged in writing that the statement was brought to his notice.

- (3) Where the hirer expressly or by implication makes known to the owner or the dealer or to any servant or agent servant or agent of the owner or the dealer the particular purpose for which the goods are required, there shall be implied in the hire-purchase agreement a condition that the goods shall be reasonably fit for that purpose, but such a condition shall not be implied if the goods are second-hand goods and the agreement contains a statement to the effect -
  - (a) that the goods are second-hand; and
  - (b) that all conditions and warranties of fitness and suitability are expressly negated, and the owner proves that the hirer has acknowledged in writing that the statement was brought to his notice.

- (4) Nothing in this section shall prejudice the operation of any other written law or rule of law whereby any condition or warranty is to be implied in any hire-purchase agreement.

8. (1) Every representation, warranty or statement made to the hirer or prospective hirer, whether orally or in writing, by the owner of the dealer or any person acting on behalf of the owner or the dealer in connection with or in the course of negotiations leading to the entering into of a hire-purchase agreement shall confer on the hirer –
  - (a) as against the owner – the same right to rescind the agreement as the hirer would have had if the representation, warranty or statement had been by an agent of the owner; and
  - (b) as against the person who made the representation, warranty or statement, and any person on whose behalf the person who made the representation, warranty or statement was acting in making it – the same right of action in damages as the hirer would have had against them or either of them if the hirer had purchased the goods from the person who made the representation, warranty or statement or the person on whose behalf the person who made the representation, warranty or statement was acting (as the case may be) as a result of the negotiations.

- (2) Every covenant, condition or term in any hire-purchase agreement or other document purporting to exclude, limit or modify the operation of subsection (1) or to preclude any right of action or any defence based on or arising out of any such representation, warranty or statement shall be void.

- (3) Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies to which an owner may be entitled, an owner shall be entitled to be indemnified by the person who made the representation, warranty or statement, and by any person on whose behalf the representation, warranty or statement was made against any damage suffered by the owner as a result of any such representation, warranty or statement.

PART IV

HIRERS

Statutory rights of hirers

Duty of owners and sellers to supply documents and information.

9. (1) At any time before the final payment has been made under a hire-purchase agreement the owner shall, within fourteen days after he has received a request in writing from the hirer, supply to the hirer a statement signed by the said person or his agent showing –

- (a) the amount paid to the owner by or on behalf of the hirer;
- (b) the amount which has become due under the agreement but remains unpaid;
- (c) the amount which is to become payable under the agreement; and
- (d) the amount derived from interest on overdue installments:

[Am. Act A20.]

Provided that an owner need not comply with such a request if he has sent the hirer a statement under the section within a period of three months immediately preceding the receipt of the request.

[Am. Act A20.]

- (2) in the event of a failure without reasonable cause to comply with subsection (1) then, while the default continues –

- (a) The owner shall not be entitled to enforce -

- (i) the agreement against the hirer;
- (ii) any right to recover the goods from the hirer;
- (iii) any contract of guarantee relating to the agreement;

- (b) any security given by the hirer in respect of money payable under the agreement or given by the guarantor in respect of money payable under such a contract of guarantee as aforesaid shall not be enforceable against the hirer or the guarantor by any holder thereof.

- (3) If the default aforesaid continues for a period of one month, the owner shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding one thousand ringgit.

10. A hirer who is liable to make payments in respect of two or more hire-purchase agreements to the same owner shall, notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary, be entitled, on making any payment in respect of the agreements which is not sufficient to discharge the total amount then due under all the agreements, to require the owner to appropriate the sum so paid by him in or towards the satisfaction of the sum due under any one of the agreements, or in or towards the satisfaction of the sums due under any two or more of the agreements in such proportions as he thinks fit, and, if he fails to make any such appropriation as aforesaid, the payment shall by virtue of this section be appropriated towards the satisfaction of the sums due under the respective hire-purchase agreements in the order in which the agreements were entered into.

11. Where, by virtue of a hire-purchase agreement, it is the duty of a hirer to keep the goods comprised in the agreement in his possession or control at a particular place or not to remove the goods from a particular place, a court of a Magistrate may, on the application of the hirer, make an order approving the removal of the goods to some other place, which place shall, for the purposes of the agreement, be substituted for the place mentioned in the agreement. Power of court to allow goods to be removed
12. (1) The right, title and interest of a hirer under a hire-purchase agreement may be assigned with the consent of the owner, or if his consent is unreasonably withheld, without his consent. Assignments of rights under hire-purchase agreement.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, no payment or other consideration shall be required by an owner for his consent to such an assignment as is mentioned in subsection (1) and where an owner requires any such payment or other consideration for this consent, that consent shall be deemed to be unreasonably withheld.
- (3) Where, at the request of the hirer under a hire-purchase agreement, the owner fails or refuses to give his consent to an assignment by the hirer or his right, title and interest under the agreement, the hirer may apply to the High Court for an order unreasonably withheld, and where such an order is made that consent shall be deemed to be unreasonably withheld.
- (4) As a condition of granting consent to an assignment of the right, title and interest of the hirer under a hire-purchase agreement, the owner may stipulate that all defaults under the agreement shall be made good and may require the assignee –
- (a) to execute and deliver to the owner an assignment in a form approved by the owner whereby without prejudicing or affecting the continuing personal liability of owner to be personally liable to pay the installments remaining unpaid and to perform and observe all other stipulations and conditions of the hire-purchase agreement during the residue of the term thereof and whereby the assignee indemnifies the hirer in respect of those liabilities; and
- (b) to pay the reasonable costs if any incurred by the owner in stamping or registering the assignment agreement or counterparts.
- (5) The refusal on the part of the owner to give consent to an assignment as is mentioned in subsection (1) on the ground that he requires other or additional guarantors to guarantee the assignee's obligation shall be deemed unreasonable –
- (a) Where the same guarantors who have guaranteed the hirer's obligation under the hire-purchase agreement have agreed to guarantee the assignee's obligation under that agreement; or
- (b) where the assignee has furnished the same number of guarantor as was furnished by the hirer to guarantee his obligation under the hire-purchase agreement as guarantors for his obligation under the agreement.
13. The right, title and interest of a hirer under a hire-purchase agreement shall be capable of passing by operation of law to the personal representative of the hirer and if the hirer is a company the liquidator may exercise the same right under the agreement as the company but nothing in this section shall relieve any personal representative or liquidator from compliance with the provisions of the agreement.

14. (1) The hirer under the hire-purchase agreement may, if he has given notice in writing to the owner of his intention to do so, on or before the day specified for that purpose in the notice, complete the purchase of the goods by paying or tendering to the owner the net balance due under the agreement. Early completion of agreement.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1) the net balance due is the balance originally payable under the agreement less -
- (a) any amounts (other than the deposit) paid or provided by or on behalf of the hirer under the agreement;
  - (b) the statutory rebate for terms charges; and
  - (c) if the hirer requires any contract of insurance to be cancelled, the statutory rebate for insurance.
- (3) The rights conferred on the hirer by this section may be exercised by him -
- (a) at any time during the continuance of the agreement; or
  - (b) where the owner has taken possession of the goods, upon payment to the owner (within twenty-one days after the owner has served a notice in the form set out in the Fifth Schedule) in addition to the net balance due together with the reasonable costs including costs (if any) of storage, repair or maintenance of the goods incurred by the owner incidental to his taking possession of the goods; or
  - (c) where the hirer has returned the goods to the owner within twenty-one days after the service on him of the notice in the form set out in the Fourth Schedule, upon payment to the owner (within twenty-one days after the owner has served a notice in the form set out in the Fifth Schedule) the net balance due under the Act.
15. (1) The hirer of any goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement may terminate the agreement by returning the goods to the owner during ordinary business hours at the place at which the owner ordinarily carries on business or to the place specified for that purpose in the agreement.
- (2) Where the nature of the goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement or the facilities available at the place or places of business to the owner or the place specified in the agreement is or are such that it would be impracticable to return the goods to such a place, the hirer may terminate the agreement by returning the goods to any place agreed to by the parties to the agreement. Power of hirer to determine hiring.
- (3) Where the parties fail to agree, the hirer who proposes to return goods to the owner under this section may, subject to subsection (4), apply to a court of a Magistrate for an order fixing the place to which the goods may be returned, and the court -
- (a) shall fix the place that is in its opinion reasonable having regard to all the circumstances surrounding the transaction;

- (b) may order that, subject to the goods being returned to the owner, the agreement shall be determined on such date as is specified in the order, not being the date before the hirer required the owner to nominate a reasonable place for the return of the goods.
- (4) Notice of an application under subsection (3) shall be given to the owner by the hirer.
- (5) Where a hire-purchase agreement is determined pursuant to this section –
  - (a) the hirer may require the owner to sell the goods to any person introduced by the hirer who is prepared to buy the goods for cash at a price agreeable to the owner;
  - (b) where the value of the goods at the time when it is returned to the owner is less than the balance outstanding under the hire-purchase agreement, the hirer is entitled to the difference which is recoverable as a debt due;
  - (d) where the value of the goods at the time when it is returned to the owner is less than the balance outstanding under the hire-purchase agreement, the owner is entitled to the difference which is recoverable as a debt due.
- (6) For the purposes of this section –
  - (a) “balance outstanding under the hire-purchase agreement” means the total sum payable by the hirer to complete the purchase of goods to which the agreement relates and the amount derived from interest on overdue installments which has yet to be paid less –
    - (i) the amount paid by or on behalf of the hirer excluding deposit;
    - (ii) statutory rebate for terms charges; and
    - (iii) statutory rebate for insurance, if any;
  - (b) “value of the goods at the time when it is returned to the owner” means -
    - (i) the best price that could reasonably be obtained by the owner; or
    - (ii) if the hirer had introduced a person who had bought the goods for cash, the amount paid by that person.

Repossession

- 16. (1) Subject to this section, an owner shall not exercise any power of taking possession of goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement arising out of any breach of the agreement relating to the payment of installments unless there had been two successive defaults of payment or a default in respect of the last payment and he have served on the hirer a notice, in writing, in the form set out in the Fourth Schedule and the period fixed by the notice has expired, which shall not be less than twenty-one days after the service of the notice.
- (1A) Where a hirer is deceased, an owner shall not exercise any power of taking possession of goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement arising out of any breach of the agreement relating to the payment of installments unless there has been four successive defaults of payments.

Notices to be given to hirer when goods repossessed.

[Am Act A332.]

- (2) An owner need not comply with subsection (1) if there are reasonable grounds for believing that the goods comprised in the hire-purchase agreement will be removed or concealed by the hirer contrary to the provisions of the agreement, but the onus of proving the existence of those grounds lies upon the owner.
- (3) Within twenty-one days after the owner has taken possession of goods that were comprised in a hire-purchase agreement he shall serve on the hirer and every guarantor of the hirer a notice, in writing, in the form set out in the Fifth Schedule.
- (4) Where the owner takes possession of goods that were comprised in a hire-purchase agreement he shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the hirer personally a document acknowledging receipt of the goods or, if the hirer is not present at that time, send to the hirer immediately after taking possession of the goods a document acknowledging receipt of the goods.
- (5) The document acknowledging receipt of the goods, required under subsection (4) shall set out a short description of the goods and the date on which, the time at which and the place where the owner took possession of the goods.
- (6) If the notice required by subsection (3) is not served, the rights of the owner under the hire-purchase agreement thereupon cease to determine; but if the hirer exercises his rights under this Act to recover the goods so taken possession of the agreement has the same force and effect in relation to the rights and liabilities of the owner and the hirer as it would have had if the notice had been duly given.
- (7) Before and when exercising the power of taking possession the owner or his servant or agent shall, in addition to the provisions of this Act, comply with any regulations relating to the manner of taking possession as may be prescribed.

[Added Act
A332.]

Hirer who returns goods not liable to pay cost of repossession,
etc.

16.A A hirer who returns goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement within twenty-one days after the service on him of the notice in the form set out in the Fourth Schedule shall not be liable to pay –

Owner to retain possession of goods
repossessed
for twenty-one
days.

17. (1) Where an owner has taken possession of any goods under section 16 he shall not, without the written consent of the hirer, sell or dispose of the goods or part with possession thereof until after the expiration of twenty-one days after the date of the service on the hirer of the notice referred to in section 16 (3) or, if notice under section 18 (1) (a) has been given, until the time for payment or tender pursuant to that notice has expired (whichever is the later).

(2) An owner who sell or dispose of any goods or parts with possession of any goods in contravention of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

Hirer's rights and immunities
when goods
repossessed.

18. (1) Where the owner takes possession of any goods under section 16 –

(a) the hirer may within twenty-one days after the service on him of the notice referred to in section 16 (3) by giving to the owner a notice in writing signed by the hirer or his agent –

- (i) require the owner to re-deliver to or to the order of the hirer (subject to the compliance by the hirer with the provisions of section 19) the goods that have been repossessed; or
  - (ii) require the owner to sell the goods to any person introduced by the hirer who is prepared to buy the goods for cash at a price not less than the estimated value of the goods set out in the first mentioned notice;
- (b) the hirer may recover from the owner –
  - (i) if the value of the goods at the time of the owner so taking possession thereof is less than the net amount payable but the total of that value and the amount paid or provided, whether by cash or other consideration, by or on behalf of the hirer under the agreement exceeds the net amount payable – the difference between that total and the net amount payable; or
  - (ii) if the value of the goods at the time of the owner so taking possession thereof is equal to or greater than the net amount payable – the total of that value and the amount paid or provided, whether by cash or other consideration, by or on behalf of the hirer under the agreement, less the net amount payable.
- (2) Where the owner take possession of any goods under section 16 the owner is not entitled to recover any sum (whether under a judgment or order or otherwise) which if added together with -
  - (a) the value of the goods at the time of the owner so taking possession thereof; and
  - (b) the amount paid or provided, whether by cash or other consideration, by or on behalf of the hirer under the agreement,exceeds the net amount payable in respect of the goods.
- (3) For the purposes of this section -
  - (a) the net amount payable is the total amount payable less the statutory rebates for terms charges and insurance as at the time of the owner taking possession of the goods; and
  - (b) the value of any goods at the time of the owner taking possession thereof is -
    - (i) the best price that could be reasonably obtained by the owner; or
    - (ii) if the hirer has introduced a person who has bought the goods for cash, the amount paid by that person, less -
    - (iii) The reasonable costs incurred by the owner of and incidental to his taking possession of the goods;
    - (iv) any amount properly expended by the owner on the storage, repair, or maintenance of the goods; and
    - (v) (whether or not the goods have subsequently been sold or disposed of by the owner) the reasonable expenses of selling or otherwise disposing of the goods.

(4) Where an owner takes possession of any goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement and intends to sell them -

- (a) by public auction, he shall be required to serve or cause to be served on the hirer a copy of the notice of such public auction not less than fourteen days from the date the said auction is to be held; or
- (b) otherwise than by public auction, he shall be required to give the hirer an option to purchase the goods at the price at which he intended to sell them if that price is less than the owner's estimate of the value of the goods repossessed as stated in the notice referred to in section 16 (3), and if he fails to comply with such requirement he shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

(5) No amount is recoverable by the hirer under this section except where the owner has failed to serve on the hirer notice as required by section 16 (3) unless -

(a) the hirer, within twenty-one days after the owner has served a notice as required by section 16 (3), gives to the owner notice in writing -

(i) setting out the amount claimed under the provisions of this section and the amount that is claimed by the hirer to be the value of the goods at the time of the owner taking possession thereof; and

(ii) signed by the hirer or his advocate and solicitor or agent; and

(b) proceedings for the recovery of the amount so claimed under the provisions of this section are commenced not later than three months after the giving by the hirer to the owner of the notice referred to in paragraph (a).

(6) If, before the proceedings referred to in subsection (5) are commenced by the hirer, the owner serves an offer in writing on the hirer to pay any amount in satisfaction of the claim by the hirer under this section, the owner, in the proceedings, is entitled to pay into court the amount so offered and, upon so doing, is entitled to the same rights as he would have had if that amount had been tendered to the hirer before the proceedings were commenced:

Provided that no such right shall be available to the owner in any proceedings by the hirer to recover the amount so offered or any lesser amount if the hirer, before commencing the proceedings, notifies the owner in writing of the acceptance by the hirer of the amount so offered.

19. (1) If, within twenty-one days after giving notice to the owner pursuant to the provisions of section 18 (1) (a), the hirer -

(a) pays or tenders to the owner any amount due by the hirer under the hire-purchase agreement in respect of the period of hiring up to the date of the payment or tender (and for the purposes of this paragraph the hiring shall be deemed to have continued up to that date);

(b) remedies any breach of the agreement or (where he is unable to remedy the breach by reason of the fact that the owner has taken possession of the goods) pays or tenders to the owner the costs and expenses reasonably and actually incurred by the owner in doing any act, matter, or thing necessary to remedy the breach; and

Power of hirer to regain possession of goods in certain circumstances.

- (c) pays or tenders to the owner the reasonable costs and expenses of the owner of and incidental to his taking possession of the goods and of his returning them to the hirer,
- (2) Where goods are returned to the hirer pursuant to subsection (1) and any breach of the hire-purchase agreement has not been remedied, the owner has no right arising out of the breach to take possession of the goods unless –
  - (a) by notice in writing given to the hirer at the time of the return of the goods he specifies the breach and requires it to be remedied; and
  - (b) the hirer fails within twenty-one days or within the time specified in the notice (whichever is the longer) after receiving the notice to remedy the breach.

20. In any legal proceedings in relation to a hire-purchase agreement, after the owner has taken possession of the goods, the court before which the proceedings are brought may vary or discharge any judgment or order of any court against the hirer for the recovery of money so far as is necessary to give effect to section 18.

Power of court to vary existing judgments or orders when goods are repossessed..

20A An owner may require a hirer to furnish a guarantor or such number of guarantors acceptable to the owner to guarantee the performance of the hirer's obligations under the hire-purchase agreement.

Provisions as to guarantors.

21. (1) Save as provided in this Act a guarantor is not, by reason of the operation of this Act, discharged from liability under his guarantee.

(2) The liability of a guarantor continues notwithstanding that the owner has, pursuant to the provisions of a hire-purchase agreement, taken possession of the goods comprised therein (and whether or not the goods have been re-delivered) to the hirer pursuant to this Act); but nothing in this subsection operates to preserve the liability of a guarantor where the owner and the hirer have entered into a new agreement in respect of the goods comprised in any hire-purchase agreement.

(3) No guarantor shall be liable to any further or the extent than the hirer, the performance of whose obligations he has guaranteed; but, nothing in this act affects any agreement by the guarantor binding him to the performance of any obligation that is not one of the obligations imposed on the hirer under the hire-purchase agreement in respect of which the guarantee is given.

(4) Where goods have been delivered to the hirer pursuant to a hire-purchase agreement and the owner subsequently takes possession thereof, any guarantor who has paid any moneys to the owner in accordance with his guarantee has the like right in like manner to recover those moneys as he would have had if he had been the hirer of the goods, but for the purpose of calculating the amount received by the owner all moneys paid and the value of any other consideration provided by or on behalf of the hirer shall be deemed to have been paid or provided by the guarantor:

Provided that no moneys shall be recovered by the guarantor in excess of the moneys actually paid by him.

Guarantor not to be bound in certain cases.

22. Where the guarantor of the performance of the obligations of the hirer under a hire-purchase agreement enters into an agreement binding the guarantor -

[Am. Act A20]

- (a) to pay to the owner an aggregate sum which is larger than the balance originally payable under the agreement; or
- (b) to perform an obligation in respect of goods other than the goods comprised in the purchase agreement, the agreement so entered shall be void unless the agreement is executed by the guarantor in the presence of a Magistrate, a Commissioner for Oaths or a Notary Public.

23. (1) The guarantor under this Part may at any time secure his discharge by paying the amount due to the owner from the hirer.

Rights of guarantor against owner.

(2) Upon such payment being made he is entitled to –

- (a) sue their hirer in the name of the owner for any breach of the hirer's obligations under the hire-purchase agreement subject to providing the owner with a suitable indemnity for costs or sue in his own name if he takes a legal assignment of the hire-purchase debt;
  - (b) insist upon the transfer to himself of all securities taken by the owner from the hirer to secure performance of the hirer's obligations.
- (3) The guarantor is entitled in the event of any claim being made against him by the owner on the guarantee to avail himself of any set-off or counter-claim which the hirer may possess against the owner.

24. (1) The guarantor is entitled to be indemnified by the hirer against any claim made by the owner on the guarantee.

Rights of guarantor against hirer.

(2) The guarantor is entitled to compel the hirer to pay the installments in respect of the hire-purchase agreement as and when they fall due; and for this purpose he may apply to a court of a Magistrate for an order to that effect.

25. Nothing in this Part shall entitle the guarantor to exercise a license to seize conferred on the owner by the hire-purchase agreement except where the agreement expressly provides that such license shall be assignable.

Guarantor not to seize.

- (4) An owner who fails to comply with subsection (1) and a hirer who fails to comply with subsection (2) shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.
- (5) A hirer shall, not less than fourteen days before the date of expiry of a policy of insurance in respect of a motor vehicle, inform the owner that he has renewed the said policy or that he has caused a fresh policy of insurance to be issued.
- (6) Where the hirer has failed to renew the policy of insurance or to cause a fresh policy to be issued, the owner shall be at liberty to cause the motor vehicle to be insured and any costs thereby incurred shall be borne by the hirer.
- (7) All amounts payable in respect of insurance, excluding such amounts payable in respect of the insurance of motor vehicles for the second and subsequent years, shall form part of the hire-purchase price.
- (8) Where in respect of the insurance of goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement, the insurer allows any commission or rebate including a no-claim rebate or any other rebate of similar nature (as distinct from legitimate agency commission) to an owner who is also a bona fide agent of an insurer and who arranges the insurance on behalf of the hirer, the hirer under the hire-purchase agreement is entitled to the benefit of the commission and the rebate and any person who knowingly pays or allows any such commission or rebate to an owner and any owner who receives such commission or rebate shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

Powers of court in relation to insurance contracts associated with hire-purchase agreements.

27. (1) In any proceedings taken in any court in respect of any difference or dispute arising out of a contract of insurance if it appears to the court that a failure by the insured or the hirer under the hire-purchase agreement concerned to observe or perform a term or condition of the contract of insurance may be reasonably be excused on the ground that the insurer was not prejudiced by the failure, the court may, unless an order excusing the failure has already been made under subsection (2), order that the failure be excused.
- (2) Where a difference or dispute has arisen out of a contract of insurance, the insured or the hirer under the hire-purchase agreement concerned or any guarantor in respect of that agreement may, unless an order excusing the failure concerned has already been made under subsection (1), apply to the court for an order that the failure to observe or perform a term or condition of the contract of insurance be excused; and if it appears to the court that the failure may reasonably be excused; and if it appears to the court that the failure may reasonably be excused on the ground that the insurer was not prejudiced by the failure, the court may order that the failure be excused.
- (4) Where an order of the nature referred to in subsections (1) and (2) has been made the rights and liabilities of all persons in respect of the contract of insurance concerned shall be determined as if the failure the subject of the order had not occurred.

28. (1) Every copy of a policy of insurance (not being a policy of third party insurance), and every statement, served upon a hirer pursuant to section 4 shall –
- (a) identify the goods or the part of the goods to be insured; and
  - (b) contain a statement of the amount and period for which the goods are insured or are to be insured; and
  - (c) if the amount for which the goods are or are to be insured will vary during the period of the agreement, contain a statement showing the varying amounts.
- (2) Subject to subsection (3) any provision in any agreement, policy of insurance or other document –
- (a) requiring differences or disputes arising out of a contract of insurance to be referred to arbitration;
  - (b) providing that no action or suit shall be maintainable upon such a contract or against the insurer in respect of any claim under, or difference or dispute arising out of, such a contract unless the claim, difference, or dispute has been referred to arbitration or an award pursuant to arbitration proceeding has been first obtained;
  - (c) providing that arbitration or an award pursuant to arbitration proceedings is a condition precedent to any right of action or suit upon such a contract; or
  - (d) otherwise imposing by reference to arbitration or to an award made in arbitration proceedings any limitation on the right of person to bring or maintain any action or suit upon such a contract.
- shall not bind the hirer.
- (3) Nothing in subsection (2) shall prevent the parties to a contract of insurance from making an agreement, after a difference or dispute has arisen out of the contract of insurance, to submit the difference or dispute to arbitration.

[Am. Act A20]

29. The provisions of this Part shall have effect notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other written law.

PART VII

GENERAL

Limitation on terms charges.

30. (1) The terms charges in relation to a hire-purchase agreement shall not, when calculated as a rate per centum per annum in accordance with the formula set out in the Sixth Schedule, exceed a rate per annum as may be prescribed by any regulations made under this Act in respect of any goods or class of goods.
- (2) Where a hire-purchase agreement is entered into in contravention of this section, the hirer may, by notice in writing to the owner signed by the hirer or hirer's agent, elect either to treat the agreements as void or to have his liability reduced by the amount included in the agreement for terms charges; and –

- (a) where the hirer elects to treat the hire-purchase agreement as void, the agreement shall be void, and the amount paid or provided, whether by cash or other consideration, by or on behalf of the hirer under the agreement shall be recoverable by action as a debt due to him by the owner;
- (b) where the hirer elects to have his liability reduced by that amount and that amount may be set off by the hirer against the amount that would otherwise be due under the agreement and, to the extent to which it is not so set off, may be recovered by action by the hirer as a debt due to him by the owner.

Minimum deposits.

- 31. (1) Where the minimum amount of the deposit in respect of any goods or class of goods is not prescribed, an owner who enters into a hire-purchase agreement without having first obtained from the proposed hirer thereunder a deposit in cash or in goods, or partly in cash and partly in goods, to a value not less than one-tenth of the cash price of the goods comprised in the agreement, shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.
- (2) In this section and in section 32 “hire-purchase agreement” does not include any agreement or arrangement that is entered into solely for the purpose of giving effect to an assignment or transfer of the rights and liabilities under an existing hire-purchase agreement from the hirer to another person.

32. (1) No deposit –

- (a) to the extent that it is in cash and that it is made out of moneys borrowed directly or indirectly -
  - (i) from or through the owner (if the owner is not a banker);
  - (ii) from or through an agent or servant of the owner; or
  - (iii) from or through any person whose business or part of whose business it is, by agreement with the owner or any person acting on behalf of the owner, to advance money to enable deposits to be paid in respect of hire-purchase agreements with the owner;
- (b) to the extent that, where the deposit is in goods or partly in goods and the amount allowed in respect of the goods is substantially greater than the value of the goods, that amount exceeds that value;
- (c) to the extent that it is made out of an amount allowed of credited in respect of, or by reference to, amounts paid by the hirer as rent or hire under a bailment of the goods before the making of a hire-purchase agreement in respect of the goods; or
- (e) to the extent that it is provided by goods that were, to the knowledge of the owner or dealer, acquired by the hirer for the purpose of being used by the hirer to provide the deposit under the agreement,

Certain payments, etc., not to be treated as deposits for the purposes of this Part.

shall be taken into the account for the purpose of determining whether the provisions of section 31 have been compiled with.

- (2) The provisions of this Part shall be deemed to have been complied with by the owner if a deposit in accordance with the provisions of this Part has been obtained by the dealer or an agent or employee of the owner.
- (3) Any person who knowingly enters into, or procures, arranges, or otherwise assist or participates in, a transaction contravening the provisions of this section shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

33. (1) In any proceedings under this Act or arising out of a hire-purchase agreement, or instituted pursuant to subsection (4), where it appears to the court that the transaction is harsh and unconscionable or is otherwise such that it will be just to give relief the court may reopen the transaction.

Power of court to reopen certain hire-purchase transactions.

(2) The court re-opening any transaction under this section may, notwithstanding any statement or settlement of accounts or any agreement purporting to close previous dealings and create a new obligation –

- (a) re-open any account already taken between the parties;
- (b) relieve the hirer and any guarantor from payment of any sum in excess of such sum in respect of the cash price, terms charges, and other charges as the court adjudges to be fairly and reasonably payable;
- (c) set aside either wholly or in part or revise or alter any agreement made or security given in connection with the transaction;
- (d) give judgment for any party for such amount as having regard to the relief (if any) that the court thinks fit to grant, is justly due to that party under the agreement; and
- (f) if it thinks fit give judgment against any party for delivery of the goods if they are in his possession.

(3) Where it appears to the court that any person other than the owner has shared in the profits of or has any beneficial interest prospectively or otherwise in the transaction that the court holds to be harsh and unconscionable the court may add that person as a party to the case and may give judgment against that person for such amount as it thinks fit or for the delivery of the goods if they are in his possession and the court may make such other order in respect of that person as it thinks fit.

(4) Subject to subsection (5), proceedings may be instituted in a court by the hirer or any guarantor under a hire-purchase agreement for the purpose of obtaining relief under this section –

(5) A hirer or guarantor under a hire-purchase agreement is not entitled to institute proceedings under this section –

- (a) in a case where the owner has taken possession of the goods comprised in the agreement after the expiration of a period of four months after the date on which the owner serves on the hirer the notice required by section 16 (3) to be served on him; or
- (b) in any other case – after the expiration of a period of four months from the time when the transaction is closed.

- (6) In any proceedings under this section the court has and may exercise all or any of the powers conferred by subsections (1), (2) and (3) notwithstanding that the time for the payment of any of the amounts payable under the agreement may not have arrived.

34. Any provision in any hire-purchase agreement whereby -

Avoidance of certain provisions.

- (a) any right conferred on the hirer by this Act to determine a hire-purchase agreement is excluded or restricted;
- (b) the hirer is subject to any greater liability on the determination, in any manner whatsoever, of the hire-purchase agreement or of the bailment thereunder, than the liability to which he would be subject if the hire-purchase agreement were determined in accordance with this Act;
- (c) the hirer is required to pay interest on any overdue installments at a rate exceeding eight per centum per annum simple interest calculated on a daily basis or such other rate of interest as may be prescribed;
- (d) the owner is relieved from liability for the acts or defaults of any person acting in connection with or in the course of the negotiations leading to the entering into the hire-purchase agreement;
- (e) the owner or any person acting on his behalf is authorised to enter upon any premises for the purpose of taking in possession of goods otherwise than in accordance with the provisions of this Act comprised in the hire-purchase agreement or is relieved from liability for any such entry;
- (f) the operation of the hire-purchase agreement is determined or modified or any person is authorised to re-posses any goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement if the hirer becomes bankrupt or commits an act of bankruptcy or executes a deed of assignment or a deed of arrangement (whether all or any of those events are named); or
- (g) except as expressly provided by this Act, the operation of any provision of this Act is excluded, modified, or restricted, shall be void and of no effect.

[Am. Act A332.]

35. Where -

Provisions relating to securities collateral to hire-purchase agreements.

- (a) a bill of exchange or promissory note has been given by a hirer or guarantor under a hire-purchase agreement to the owner in respect of an amount payable under the agreement; and
- (b) the payment in due course of the bill of exchange or promissory note would, by virtue of the operation of any provision of this Act or otherwise, result in payment of an amount in excess of the liability of the hirer under the agreement, the owner is liable to indemnify the hirer or guarantor, as the case may be, in respect of the amount of the excess.

36. Where -

- (a) a dealer, an agent or a person on behalf of an owner prepares or causes to be prepared a hire-purchase agreement or offer in writing that, if accepted, will constitute a hire-purchase agreement with the intention of bringing about a contractual relationship between an owner and a hirer, and

- (b) the agreement or offer contains to the knowledge of the dealer, agent or person acting on behalf of the owner, as the case may be, a false statement or representation that is false in any material particular,

the dealer, agent or person acting on behalf of the owner shall be guilty of an offence under this Act and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding three thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

Prohibition against collection of payment other than those in the second Schedule.

- 36A Any owner, dealer, agent or person acting on behalf of the owner who collects any payment in respect of a hire-purchase agreement other than a payment listed in the Second Schedule or a payment permitted under this Act shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

Prohibition against collection of payment by persons other than owners, dealers, agents, etc.

- 36B Any person not being an owner, dealer, agent or person acting on behalf of the owner who collects any payment from a hirer in respect of a hire-purchase agreement shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

Issue of receipt on in respect of payments..

- 36c (1) An owner, dealer, agent or person acting on behalf of the owner who collects any payment in respect of a hire-purchase agreement shall issue a receipt to the hirer in respect of every such payment collected.

- (2) Any person who contravenes the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

Owner to inform hirer where dealer, etc. has ceased to be authorised to collect payment.

- 36D Where it is within the knowledge of the owner that any dealer, agent or person acting on behalf of the owner to collect any payment in respect of a hire-purchase agreement has ceased to be a dealer or agent or person authorised to act on his behalf, it shall be the duty of the owner to inform every hirer from whom such dealer, agent or person ordinarily collects payment that the dealer, agent or person has ceased to be authorised to so act and that no further payments should be made to such dealer, agent or person.

37. (1) The owner of any goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement may, at any time by notice in writing served on the hirer thereof, require him to state in writing where the goods are, or if the goods are not in his possession, to whom he delivered the goods or the circumstances under which he lost possession of them, and any hirer who does not within fourteen days after the receipt of such a notice give to the owner such a statement or who gives a statement containing any information that is to the knowledge of the hirer false shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

- (2) Where -

- (a) a hirer removes the goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement from the address specified; or

(b) goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement are lost or are removed from or are taken out of the hirer's possession, the hirer shall inform the owner in writing or state in the presence of the owner –

(i) the new address where the goods are kept; or

(ii) the date and circumstances in which the goods were lost; or

(iii) the date and circumstances in which the goods were removed or taken out of his possession, and any hirer who does not within fourteen days of the removal or loss comply with the provisions of this subsection shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

38. Every person who, by the disposal or sale of any goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement, or by the removal of the goods, or by any other means, defrauds or attempts to defraud the owner shall be guilty of an offence under this Act and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding ten thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three years or to both.

Fraudulent sale or disposal of goods by hirer. [Am. Act A332.]

39. Any alteration of, or matter added to, a hire-purchase agreement or any written document that contains the terms and conditions of the agreement after the document was signed, if the alteration is an alteration of any of the matters set out in the written statement or statements required to be served on the hirer pursuant to section 4 (1) (a) and (b) before the hire-purchase agreement was entered into, shall have no force or effect unless the hirer or his agent has consented to the alteration or the additional matter by signing or initialing the agreement or the written document in the margin thereof opposite the alteration or additional matter.

Certain alterations, etc., of hire-purchase agreement to be of no effect.

Second-hand goods.

40. Where goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement are, at the time when the agreement is entered into, second-hand goods then unless -

(a) the goods are described in the agreement as second-hand goods; or

(b) in any proceedings taken by the owner to enforce the agreement, the court is satisfied that –

(i) the hirer was aware at the time when he or his agent signed the agreement that goods comprised or to be comprised therein were second-hand goods; or

(ii) the owner was not aware at the time when the agreement was entered into that the goods comprised therein were second-hand goods; or the liability of the hirer thereunder shall be reduced by the amount included in the agreement for terms charges. The amount may be set off by the hirer against the amount that would otherwise be due or become due to the owner under the agreement and, to the extent to which it is not so set off may be recovered by the hirer from the owner as a civil debt.

Power of court to extend time.

41. Any time prescribed by this Act for the service of giving of any notice or other document or for the commencement of proceedings may, on an application made to a court of a Magistrate (either before or after the expiration of that time but after notice to the other party to the hire-purchase agreement), be extended by such court for such further period, and upon such conditions, as the court thinks fit.

Power of court to order delivery of goods unlawfully detained.

42. (1) Upon complaint made to a court of a Magistrate by an owner who is entitled to take possession of any goods comprised in a hire-purchase agreement or by any person acting on behalf of an owner that the hirer or any person in possession of the goods has refused or failed to deliver up possession of the goods on the service of a notice of demand made by the owner or by an agent of the owner authorised in that behalf, the Magistrate may summon the person complained of to appear before the court and if it appears to the court hearing the case that the goods are being detained without just cause, the court may order the goods to be delivered up to the owner at or before a time, and at a place, to be specified in the order.
- (2) Any person who neglects or refuses to comply with any order made under this section shall be guilty of an offence under this Act.

43. Any notice or document required or authorised to be served on or given or sent to an owner or hirer under this Act may be served or given or sent - Service of notices.
- (a) by delivering it to him personally; or
- (b) deleted
- (c) by posting it by registered post addressed to him at his last known place of abode or business.

- 43A (1) Where it appears that it is impracticable for any reason to serve a notice or document required or authorised to be served on or given or sent to an owner or hirer in accordance with section 43, a court of a Magistrate may, make an order for substitute service of the notice or document. Substituted service.
- (2) An application for an order for substitute service must be made by notice supported by an affidavit stating the facts on which the application is founded.
- (3) Substitute service of the notice or document is effected by taking such steps as the court may direct to bring the notice or document to the attention of the person to be served.

44. The affidavit or oral evidence of an owner or his servant or agent, or of a hirer, as to the delivery, posting or service of any notice or document required or authorised to be served, given or sent under this Act is admissible as prima facie proof of the service, giving or sending of the notice or document. Proof of service.

45. (1) Any prescribed document or part thereof – Size, type, etc. required in certain documents..
- (a) not being the signature or initials of any persons, that is in handwriting that is not clear and legible; or
- (b) that is printed in type of a size smaller than the type known as ten-point Times.
- shall, for the purposes of this Act, be deemed not to be in writing.
- (2) In this section “prescribed document” means –
- (a) any hire-purchase agreement;

- (b) any statement under section 4 (1);
  - (c) any copy of an agreement, notice or statement required by section 5 to be served on a hirer;
  - (d) any statement required by section 9 (1) to be sent to a hirer; and
  - (e) any notice under section 16 (1) or (3).
- (3) Where, by virtue of this section, a prescribed document or part of a prescribed document is, for the purposes of this Act, deemed not to be in writing, then, except as is otherwise in this Act expressly provided, the validity or effect of the prescribed document is not affected.

Nothing in this subsection affects the liability of any person to be convicted of an offence under this Act.

Penalty. 46. Any person who is guilty of an offence under this Act or any regulations made thereunder for which no other penalty is expressly provided by this Act or regulations shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding three thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

Liability of responsible officers of company. [Added act A332.] 47. Where any offence under this Act has been committed by any body corporate (whether or not the body corporate has been prosecuted) any person who at the time of the commission of the offence was a director, manager or an officer, concerned in the management of the body corporate or was purporting to act in such capacity shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence unless he proves that the offence was committed without his consent or connivance and that he exercised all such diligence to prevent the commission of the offence as he ought to have exercised having regard to the nature of his functions in that capacity and to all the circumstances of the case.

Principal criminally liable for acts of servant or agent. [Added Act A332.] 48. Where the agent or servant of a person commits an offence, or does anything or omits to do anything (which if done or omitted to be done by that person would constitute an offence under this Act) that person shall notwithstanding that he has no knowledge of the offence be deemed guilty of the offence and be liable to punishment for the offence unless he proves that -

- (a) the act or omission complained of was not within the ordinary scope of the employment of the agent or servant; or
- (b) the act or omission complained of was done or omitted to be done without his consent or connivance and that he exercised all such diligence to prevent the commission as he ought to have exercised having regard to all the circumstances of the case.

PART VIII

POWERS OF ENFORCEMENT

[Part VIII added Act A332.]

Declaration of office. 49. Every officer appointed under this Act when acting against any person under this Act shall on demand declare his office and produce to the person against whom he is acting such authority card as the controller may direct to be carried by such officer.

50. (1) Any officer appointed under this Act may, at all reasonable hours, exercise the following powers, that is to say –

Power to enter premises and inspect and seize goods and documents.

- (a) if he has reasonable cause to suspect that an offence under this Act has been committed, he may for the purpose of ascertaining whether it has been committed, enter any premises other than premises used only as a dwelling and require any person carrying on a trade or business or employed in connection with a trade or business to supply him any information or to produce any goods or any documents relating to the trade or business and he may take copies of, or copies of any entry in, any such document;
  - (b) he may seize and detain any goods and document which he has reason to believe may required as evidence in proceedings for an offence under this Act.
- (2) Any officer appointed under this Act seizing documents and goods in the exercise of his powers under this section shall, as soon as possible, supply a list of the documents and goods seized to the person from whom they are seized.
- (3) If a Magistrate, on sworn information in writing –
- (a) is satisfied that there is reasonable ground to believe either -
    - (i) that any document or goods which any officer appointed under this Act has power under this section to inspect are on any premises and that their inspection is likely to disclose evidence of the commission of an offence under this Act; or
    - (ii) that any offence under this Act has been, is being or is about to be committed to any premises; and
  - (b) is also satisfied either -
    - (i) that admission to be premises has been or is likely to be refused and that notice of intention to apply for a warrant under this subsection has been given to the occupier; or
    - (ii) that an application for admission or the giving of such a notice would defeat the object of the entry or that the premises are unoccupied or that the occupier is temporarily absent and it might defeat the object of the entry to await his return,
- the Magistrate may by warrant under his hand, which shall continue in force for a period of one month, authorize any officer appointed under this Act to enter the premises, if need be by force.
- (4) Any officer appointed under this Act entering any premises by virtue of this section may take with him such other persons and such equipment as may appear to him necessary; and on leaving any premises which he has entered by virtue of the powers under subsection (1) or a warrant under the preceding subsection he shall, if the premises are unoccupied or the occupier is temporarily absent, leave them as effectively secured against trespassers as he found them.

Obstruction of officers.

51. (1) Any person who –

- (a) willfully obstructs any officer appointed under this Act acting in pursuance of this Act;

(b) willfully fails to comply with any requirement properly made to him by such an officer under section 50; or

(c) without reasonable cause fails to give such an officer so acting any other assistance or information which he may reasonably require of him for the purpose of the performance of his functions under this Act, shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to a fine not exceeding two thousand ringgit or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

(2) If any person, in giving any such information as is mentioned in the preceding subsection, makes any statement which he knows or has reason to believe to be false, he shall be guilty of an offence and shall, on conviction, be liable to the penalty mentioned in that subsection.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring a person to answer any question or give any information if to do so might incriminate him.

Warrant
admissible notwithstanding defects, etc.

51A A warrant issued under this Act shall be valid and enforceable notwithstanding any defect, mistake or omission therein or in the application for such warrant and any goods or documents seized under such warrant shall be admissible in evidence in any proceedings under this Act.

Powers of investigation.

51B An Assistant Controller shall have the power to investigate the commission of any offence under this Act or any regulations made thereunder.

52. (1) The Controller, Deputy Controller and any other officer specially authorised in writing by the Controller in that behalf may in writing require any owner or dealer to supply him any information he may request relating to any hire-purchase agreement or to the goods to which such agreement relates.

Supply of information.

(2) Any person who without reasonable excuse fails to supply any information requested under subsection (1) or supplies any information which he knows or has reason to believe to be false commits an offence under this Act.

53. Notwithstanding any law to the contrary for the time being in force, any information given by any person, whether orally or in writing, in compliance or purported compliance with any request made or in response to any question put to him under this Act may be given in evidence in any proceedings against that person for an offence against this Act notwithstanding that it may tend to incriminate him in respect of the offence with which he is charged.

Information
given by accused person admissible in evidence..

54. If any person discloses to any other person any information obtain by him in pursuance of this Act he shall be guilty of an offence unless the disclosure was made in or for the purpose of the performance of functions under this Act.

Disclosure of information.

55. Any officer appointed under this Act shall have the power to prosecute any offence under this Act or any regulations made thereunder.

Prosecution.

55A The court trying any person accused of an offence under this Act may, at the conclusion of the trial, regardless whether that person is convicted or not, order that any goods or documents seized from that person be delivered to the rightful owner.

Court may order disposal
of goods.

Compounding.

56. (1) The Controller or, in his absence, the Deputy Controller may compound any offence which is prescribed to be a compoundable offence by collecting from the person reasonably suspected of having committed such offence a sum of money not exceeding such amount as may be prescribed.
- (2) Upon receipt of the payment under subsection (1), no further proceedings shall be taken against such person in respect of such offence and where possession has been taken of any goods or documents under this Act or any regulations made thereunder in connection with such offence, such goods or documents may be released, subject to such conditions as may be imposed.
- (3) Where any person has compounded an offence under this Act or any regulations made thereunder, evidence of the notice of acceptance of the offer to compound shall, on production to any court, be treated as proof of the commission of the offence by that person and of the matters set out therein.
- (4) The power to compound offences under subsection (1) shall be exercised by the Controller or the Deputy Controller personally.

Protection of controller, Deputy Controllers, Assistant Controllers, etc.

56A No action or prosecution shall be brought, instituted or maintained in any court against the Controller, Deputy Controllers, Assistant Controllers or any other officer duly appointed by the Minister for or on account of or in respect of any Act ordered or done for the purpose of carrying into effect this Act, and no suit or prosecution shall lie in any court against any other person for or an account of or in respect of any act done or purported to have been done by him under the order, direction or instruction of the Controller, deputy Controllers, Assistant Controllers or any other officer duly appointed by the Minister for any such purpose as aforesaid:

Provided that the act was done in good faith and in a reasonable belief that it was necessary for the purpose intended to be served thereby.

PART IX

REGULATIONS, ETC.

Regulations.

57. (1) The Minister may make regulations for or in respect of every purpose which is deemed by him necessary for carrying out the provisions of this Act and for the prescribing of any matter which is authorised or required under this Act to be so prescribed.

[Subs. Act A332]

(2) Without prejudice to the foregoing power the Minister may by regulations -

- (a) after consultation with the Minister charged with the responsibility for insurance prescribe -
  - (i) the rates of insurance in respect of any class or classes of goods;

IN exercise of the powers conferred by section 57 (2) the Hire-Purchase Act 1967, the Minister makes the following regulations:

Act 212.

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Hire-Purchase (Compounding of Offences) Regulations 1993 and shall come into force on the 1st March 1993.
2. All offences under the Act and the Hire-Purchase (Recovery of Possession and Maintenance of Records by Owners) Regulations 1976 may be compounded.
3. (1) The amount of compound payable in respect of a compoundable offence shall not exceed the amount of the maximum fine that may be imposed for that offence.

(2) Where the amount specified in the offer to compound is not paid within the time specified in the offer, or any extension of it which the Controller or, in his absence, the Deputy Controller may grant for the offence shall be instituted without further notice given.
4. (1) When an offer to compound any offence is made and accepted, payment shall be made to the Controller or, in his absence, the Deputy Controller, in cash or by money order, postal order or banker's draft made payable to the Controller of Hire-Purchase.

(2) An official receipt for such payment shall be issued to the person to whom the offer to compound was made.
5. (1) An offer to compound shall be made in Form I of the Schedule.

(2) The acceptance of the offer to compound shall be made in Form II of the Schedule.
